

EDWARD F. DUNNE ASSUMES OFFICE OF GOVERNOR AFTER MONTH'S DELAY

OATH ADMINISTERED MONDAY NOON AT JOINT SESSION OF HOUSE AND SENATE, BY CHIEF JUSTICE DUNN

Ceremony Follows Street Pageant Which is Witnessed by Thousands—Despite Inaugural Activities Senatorships Occupy
Center of Stage—Men Who Watched Post-Inauguration
Session Believe Sullivan Democrats and Republicans Control Situation.

SPRINGFIELD, FEB. 3.—Former Mayor Edward F. Dunne of Chicago, twenty-sixth governor of Illinois, and the first Democrat to fill the executive's office since the days of Alton, today assumed office at noon in the state house. He received the congratulations of several thousand people this afternoon and tonight at two public receptions. The first of these receptions was held this afternoon in the governor's offices at the state house and the second, tonight, took place at the executive mansion.

Roger Sullivan, who apparently departed from Springfield in the midst of the speaker's address, was seen in person to witness the ceremonies but also to see the Sullivan contingent in the legislature. The first of the victory on the floor of the house, State Representative John J. McLaughlin of Chicago, Sullivan's candidate for the speakership who was labeled "unfit" by Governor Dunne in an anti-Lorimer edict to day appeared on the floor of the house in the role of Democratic floor leader, seconded by Representative O'Neil Browne of Ottawa, and Representative Benjamin Mitchell of Chicago.

Adjourns Business Until Feb. 11.
Aided by the Republicans these Democrats who over the protests of Progressives and others negotiated an adjournment of business until Tuesday February 11th, the date set by the constitution for balloting on the United States senatorships.

Having thus brushed aside complications in the senatorial situation, which might easily arise in debate if the house were in regular session, the Sullivan contingent of Democrats began a series of conferences with representative house members to settle upon a plan of action to be followed in the fight for the federal senatorial positions.

Men who watched the brief post inauguration session of the house this afternoon give it as their opinion that the Sullivan Democrats and the Republicans had control of the situation.

Despite the ceremonials of inauguration day, the subject of the federal senatorships occupied the center of the stage in nearly all discussions among the members of the legislature and the hundreds of politicians from all parts of the state who had come to Springfield ostensibly to witness the inauguration, but in reality to set a line at first hand on the situation in the legislature.

Inaugural Parade.
Governor-elect Dunne and Mrs. Dunne entered their carriage at the door of the St. Nicholas Hotel promptly at 10:30 o'clock this morning for the drive through the streets to the state house. Others of the official party followed them and the governor-elect's carriage fell in line behind the marching clubs which marched past the party in front of the hotel. The parade proceeded down Fourth street to the executive mansion amid cheering throngs which lined the sidewalks.

Turning in at the gates of the mansion, Governor-elect Dunne's carriage drew up at the door and as Governor and Mrs. Dunne appeared on the steps Mr. and Mrs. Dunne stepped out of their carriage to greet them. The camera men crowded around the new executive and his wife stood beside Governor and Mrs. Dunne while a dozen pictures were snapped. Then the party re-entered the carriage.

Passing out the east gate of the mansion grounds the carriages turned north to Fifth street and soon caught up with the procession and continued with the marchers to the state house where a great crowd greeted the retiring governor and his successor.

Party Enters State House.
The governor-elect and Mrs. Dunne followed by Governor and Mrs. Dunne ascended the steps of the state house between the lines of soldiers and proceeded up the corridor to the rotunda, where they entered the elevator and were carried to the third floor, just half an hour after they had left the St. Nicholas Hotel, they passed through the door of the chamber of the house, and up to their seats on the platform where the inauguration took place.

At exactly 12 o'clock Representative Frank Catlin of Cook, acting doorkeeper of the day, approached the Speaker's platform, and announced: "Mr. Speaker: The Honorable, the Senate, is at the door."

Speaker McKinley replied: "Admit the Honorable, the Senate."

Other members of the joint inaugural committee were Senators Manly, Barr, Brady, Cornwell, Glackin and Keller; Representatives Farrell, Garesche, Arthur Roe, King, Provine and Kleeman.

Immediately following the joint inaugural committee was Governor-elect Dunne, walking with Governor Deneen. The other incoming officials followed, each walking with the retiring official of the same offices.

McKinley Presides Over Session.
Members of the party were seated in the front row of the semi-circles arranged on either side of the Speaker's platform. Speaker McKinley, who presided over the joint session, and Lieut. Oglesby, as president of the senate, were seated at the table.

Speaker McKinley announced the purpose of the gathering and stated that the oath of office would be administered to the incoming officers by Chief Justice Frank K. Dunn of the Supreme court.

House Concludes Arrangement.
The house made final arrangements for the inaugural in a short session at 11 o'clock to day. After prayer by the chaplain and the reading of the journal of the last session, three resolutions were adopted and the house stood at ease until 11:50 o'clock.

A resolution by Representative Browne provided for the appointment of a committee of five by the speaker to notify the state and federal state officers, and also to invite the other members of the supreme court to attend and witness the ceremonies.

Speaker McKinley appointed on this committee Messrs. McLaughlin, Smeikal, Shepherd, Kane, Richardson, Wilson and McCabe.

Dunne First to Take Oath.
Governor-elect Dunne was the first to take the oath. Stepping to the front of the platform, and directly facing Chief Justice Dunn, with his right hand held high over his head, he deliberately repeated the oath following the chief justice.

Following the governor, each new official, in turn took his place in front of Chief Justice Dunn and repeated the oath of office.

When the ceremony was concluded, Speaker McKinley presented the retiring governor, Charles S. Deneen. Governor Deneen made a five minute speech, referring briefly to the simplicity of the American form of government and the ease with which a transfer of administration was made.

Address Occupies Fifty-five Minutes.
Governor Dunne immediately began the delivery of his inaugural address, which occupied fifty-five minutes.

Following yesterday's blizzard the weather today was delightful. A heavy snow mantled the ground, but city officials had the streets swept over the line of the inaugural parade, so that the marchers were not subjected to any sort of hardships.

Following was the order of a parade: Platoon of police. General F. S. Dickson, marshal. Col. R. J. Shand, chief of staff. Aides—Col. S. O. Tripp, Col. Frank D. Whipp, Col. Henry Davis, Major H. T. Lester, Major Charles Walz, Capt. H. H. Tuttle.

Watch Factory band of Springfield. Jefferson Marching club of Joliet, eighty strong.

Cook County Democracy Marching club, with 250 in line.

When the Cook County Democracy Marching club had passed the carriages bearing the members of the official party wheeled into line. They proceeded direct through Fourth street to the executive mansion.

Marching through the executive grounds, Governor and Mrs. Deneen entered the carriage in which Governor-elect and Mrs. Dunne were seated, at that time leaving the mansion for the last time.

Proceeds Through Business District.
The cortege then proceeded over a line of march through the business district of Springfield, and to the state house. Here the marchers formed in open order while the carriage bearing the official party passed between the lines to the north door of the capitol building.

Members of the official party proceeded direct to the state library on the third floor of the building. Here they joined the members of the supreme court and their wives, preparatory to entering the house.

At the conclusion of the inaugural ceremony Governor and Mrs. Dunne were driven to the executive mansion, of which they took immediate charge. Governor and Mrs. Deneen went from the inaugural ceremony to the Chicago & Alton station, taking an afternoon train for Chicago.

Recommendation Brings Applause.
Governor Dunne's recommendation, contained in his inaugural address, that any broken promise or pledge, when made to a constituency

WASHINGTON, FEB. 3.—Direct taxes upon the incomes of citizens of the United States whether derived from idle capital or from the sweat of business, was made possible today by the ratification of the sixteenth amendment to the federal constitution. Delaware, Wyoming and New Mexico, endorsing the income tax amendment through their respective legislatures, completed a list of 38 states that have approved it, two more than the three-fourths necessary for its final adoption. Leaders in congress predicted tonight that through this authorization the law which will be passed to levy tax upon American incomes will be introduced as soon as an extra session opens. Its exact terms have not been decided upon, but it is believed it will affect all incomes over $4,000 or $5,000, and will provide a tax of one cent upon the majority of the personal incomes that do not run to an excessive figure. Informal notice of the final adoption of the new amendment was given to the senate by Senator Brown of Nebraska, who introduced the discussion in 1909 upon which the proposal for an income tax was submitted to the states.

Hull Will Probably Draft Bill.
The drafting of the bill to put the tax into effect, it is expected, will fall to the lot of Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee, a member of the house ways and means committee, who drew the excess tax bill introduced last year by the Democratic house of representatives but which did not become a law. The income tax will be designated to supplant the present corporation tax and will apply to the incomes of individuals, firms and corporations. In a statement tonight Representative Hull declared he favored making the new tax an integral part of the financial system of the United States to remain in full force without regard to the character of tariff bills that congress may enact from time to time.

One feature which it is believed will be included in the law will be provision for "collecting at the source of the income." This feature now in operation in England, would require firms to certify amounts paid individuals in salaries and fees and pay the tax direct to the government. It is believed this would remove much complaint that might be made if the government had to investigate every individual citizen's income and would prevent evasion of the law.

Government to Get Enormous Sum.
The annual amount that the government may realize under the income tax is estimated by Democratic leaders in congress at approximately $100,000,000. This would include

SECOND ATTEMPT TO JAIL EDITOR BLOCKED

NELSON CONTEMPT CASE GOES TO MISSOURI SUPREME COURT

Sheriff Winstanley Repudiates Motion Filed in His Name Asking That Writ Releasing Mr. Nelson be Quashed—Attorney to Apply For Writ.

KANSAS CITY, MO., FEB. 3.—Another attempt to place William R. Nelson, editor and owner of the Kansas City Star, in jail for contempt of court, was blocked today when sheriff Edwin Winstanley in the Kansas City court of appeals repudiated a motion filed in his name by friends of the court of Circuit Judge Joseph A. Guthrie, asking that a writ of habeas corpus upon which Mr. Nelson was released Saturday be quashed. The appellate court then certified the case to the state supreme court, where in the regular order of the docket months may pass before it is heard. In the meantime the status of Mr. Nelson at liberty on bail will not be changed.

Attorney O. H. Dean, one of the friends of the court whose names were affixed to the motion to quash, told the three judges of the court on bench that the sheriff's name had been placed on the motion upon verbal assurance from Judge Guthrie that the sheriff approved the signature. It was Judge Guthrie who sentenced Mr. Nelson to one day in jail for contempt.

Attempt to Argue Stopped.
An attempt to argue the motion then was made by Attorney Dean but was stopped by presiding Judge James Ellison who had announced that the court had decided that the habeas corpus was good and would certify the case to the supreme court. Arguments followed in which Frank P. Walsh, attorney for Mr. Nelson, charged that he had been misled by the filers of the motion and in which Attorney Dean declared it had been filed in good faith. The contempt proceedings have aroused intense interest among lawyers. At the original hearing and at today's procedure scores of men of the profession were in attendance. There was talk among attorneys and officials at the court house today that Judge Guthrie would issue a citation for contempt against Judge Ralph Latschaw of the criminal court, who Saturday criticized the circuit judge's action in sentencing Mr. Nelson.

"I probably could be cited for contempt," Judge Latschaw said, "but I am ready for the summons should it come."

Frank P. Walsh, Mr. Nelson's attorney, left here tonight for Jefferson City, where at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning he will apply to the state supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus for Mr. Nelson. He said the court sitting en banc would entertain the application at that time.

The filing of the application he said is a formal proceeding necessary to get the case before the supreme court in obedience to the order of the circuit court of appeals in certifying it to the higher tribunal.

Mr. Walsh said the case probably would be several weeks before the case would come upon its merits before the supreme court.

The report on the increase in price was adopted by a large majority and was followed by a pledge that those present would stand together to exact the new rate.

The following were elected officers of the association for 1913: President—E. J. Fellows, St. Charles, Ill.

GIVES NEW RULING ON SHERMAN LAW

Interpretation By Supreme Court Outgrowth of
"Shoe Machinery" Case

CITES RECENT DECISIONS

Holds Measure Does Not Forbid Mere Combining of Non-Competitors in an Industry

WON'T AFFECT OTHER SUITS

WASHINGTON, FEB. 3.—For the first time the supreme court of the United States today held in effect in the "shoe machinery trust" case that the Sherman anti-trust law does not forbid the mere combining of non-competitors in an industry.

Solicitor General Bullitt for the government had contended that if the combination brought into one hand an "undue proportion" of the trade it was forbidden by the anti-trust law.

"The disintegration aimed at by the statute does not extend to reducing all manufacture to isolated units of the lowest degree," declared Justice Holmes in announcing the unanimous decision of the court that the mere organization of the United Shoe machinery company by the heads of several non-competing groups of shoe manufacturers had not been a violation of the law. The justice continued to say that it is as lawful for one corporation to make "every part" of a steam engine and to put the machine together as it would be for one to make the boilers and another to make the wheels. In explanation of this concise statement of law he referred to the court's recent Minnesota creamery decision and the older Swift & Co. decision in which it was held that an "intent" is necessary as an element of attempting to monopolize. The bringing of non-competing branches of a trade into juxtaposition alone by means of a corporation he said in substance did not furnish sufficient "intent" to raise the conduct to the dignity of an attempt to monopolize.

Desires Company Will be Prosecuted.
Despite today's decision officials of the department of justice declared that the United shoe machinery company would be prosecuted for the alleged criminal violation of the Sherman law under the one remaining count of the indictments returned against the company, the validity of which was sustained by the lower court. That count which was not before the supreme court charged in effect that the company was monopolizing the industry by combination by trying the various shoe machines together, by the destruction of competition, and by the acquisition of competitors' business. Officials vigorously maintained that the decision did not affect the government's case on this count.

The strongest feature of the government's effort to show an unlawful combination in restraint of trade, Solicitor General Bullitt, was the "tying" clause of the agreements by which it is alleged that the company sought to compel shoe manufacturers to buy machines from it and none other. That question, he declared, was not considered by the court because the lower court had interpreted the indictments involved in today's decision as referring solely to the organization of the United Shoe Machinery company.

Attorneys of the department said the decision would not affect any other pending anti-trust suits.

BEACH TO FACE TRIAL FOR ASSULT ON WIFE

Charge Carries Clause, "Intent to Kill"—Mrs. Beach Expected to be Principal Witness For Defense.

Aiken, S. C., Feb. 3.—Frederick O. Beach, prominent New Yorker, will be placed on trial here tomorrow charged with assault and battery with intent to kill his wife, Camilla Morse Havemeyer Beach. Mrs. Beach is expected to be the principal witness for the defense for she has steadfastly maintained she was not attacked by her husband.

The assault on Mrs. Beach was committed on the night of February 26 last. Someone struck her on the head with a heavy instrument and inflicted a jagged gash in her throat, apparently with a pocket knife. Beach was arrested April 8, charged with the assault, the police contending he had attacked his wife near the Beach winter home, after he had failed to catch "a white man in a gray suit" who fled at his approach.

Even though Mrs. Beach maintained she had been attacked by a negro whose motive was robbery, city authorities employed a detective to work up the case and Beach was indicted.

DUNNE APPROVES BOND OF STATE TREASURER

IS FIRST OFFICIAL ACT PERFORMED
BY NEW GOVERNOR

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., FEB. 3.—Governor Dunne performed his first official act this afternoon when he approved the bond of William Ryan Jr., of Danville, the new state treasurer.

Both Treasurer Ryan and Auditor James J. Brady failed to get their bonds here in time this morning to be sworn into office with the governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

Treasurer Ryan's bond arrived on an afternoon train. Two justices of the supreme court joined with Governor Dunne in approving it and thus enabled the new treasurer to take hold of the state funds before the day was over.

Auditor Brady's bond was sent from Chicago on a later train and was not approved until 8 o'clock tonight at the executive mansion. By previous arrangement two justices of the supreme court who were in attendance at the mansion reception joined Governor Dunne in approving the document which also made it possible for the new auditor to take over his office on the same day as Governor Dunne. Mr. Brady will take charge of his office tomorrow.

Edwin Romberg of Chicago and J. Kelly of Danville, were named by Governor Dunne today to places on his military staff, with rank of colonels.

Governor Dunne has decided upon William L. Sullivan of Chicago to be private secretary of the governor.

TUMULTY WILL REMAIN GOVERNOR WILSON'S SECRETARY

President-Elect Makes Announcement Monday—Has Not Decided On Cabinet.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 3.—Governor Woodrow Wilson today announced the selection of Joseph Patrick Tumulty, his present private secretary, to continue as secretary when he became president of the United States but declared very emphatically that he had arrived at no other decisions as to appointments. When shown a published story stating flatly that William J. Bryan, A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania and R. L. Henry of Texas has been decided upon by him for cabinet posts, the governor said:

"It is not true because I haven't decided upon anybody. I have made no offers as yet."

There was a procession of callers at the state house today mostly on state business however, and the governor remained in his office until late tonight so as to be accessible to the legislature which was in session.

Representatives Stanley of Kentucky, Goodwin of Arkansas, Callaway of Texas, Gable of Georgia and Russell of Missouri, urged the governor to appoint C. S. Barrett of Georgia, president of the national farmers union to the secretaryship of agriculture. Charles G. Heifner of Seattle, former chairman of the Democratic committee of Washington talked over the Alaskan situation and conservation policies with the president-elect.

ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS RETURN FROM CUBA

Made Trip to Gather Data to Be Used in Fortifying Guantanamo, As Seen Outpost of Canal.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Army and navy officers who went to Cuba to gather data to be used in devising a plan for the fortification of the Guantanamo naval station as an outpost of the Panama canal, returned today on the yacht Mayflower.

The work of the board was confined to an inspection of a large tract of land in the rear of the existing naval station, arrangements for the acquisition of which are now being completed.

While the naval officials were endeavoring to find a solution of the problem of an adequate natural water supply for the naval station, it was discovered by the strategists, that through an oversight in the original plans of defense it would be possible for an army advancing on the station from the rear to occupy a position on Cuban soil by artillery that would completely dominate the naval base. It was decided this engaged in the acquisition of a right of way across Cuban territory to one of the rivers so as to include this particular bill where an enemy might operate to advantage.

The joint board has been engaged in re-locating the rear defenses of the station as a consequence of this enlargement.

FOUND GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 3.—A verdict of guilty was returned tonight by the jury in district court against the Minneapolis Milk company and A. R. Runkle, president of the corporation with conspiracy to raise the price of milk. The case was prosecuted under a state law prohibiting combines for the purpose of controlling the price of commodities.

Attorneys for the defense said the case would be appealed to the supreme court.

JOHN DUFFNER SUCCUMBS TO STROKE OF APOPLEXY

Well Known Citizen Passes Suddenly Away at Family Home After Few Hours Illness—Funeral Will Be Held Wednesday.

John Duffner, one of the substantial and widely known citizens of Jacksonville died suddenly Sunday evening at 11:30 o'clock from at the family residence, 1206 South Clay avenue. Mr. Duffner had attended 1:30 morning mass and was on his way home when he felt a peculiar sensation in his head. After reaching home he related the fact and still complained of not feeling well. While sitting at the table he grew worse and was carried into another room, when a physician was summoned, who arrived a few minutes later, and informed the family of the nature of the father's illness. Mr. Duffner remained unconscious until he passed away at the hour stated above.

Except for a brief illness about fifteen years ago Mr. Duffner had never been sick a day in his life. For the past few weeks he had enjoyed unusually good health and only last Saturday was down town transacting business and spent a good portion of the afternoon at the store of his son, Thomas Duffner. His sudden passing away comes as a great shock to his relatives and friends and they will have the sincere sympathy of the community in their deep bereavement.

Mr. Duffner was born in Freiberg, Germany Dec. 27, 1836, being in the 77th year of his age. When 18 years old he came to America, with some people who went on to Missouri. Mr. Duffner stopped at Springfield and it was there that he married Miss Annie Gougherty, Jan. 13, 1863. Two years later they moved to a farm, two and one-half miles west of Woodson, where the family resided until 11 years ago when they came to Jacksonville and purchased the property at 1206 South Clay avenue.

The deceased could well be accounted one of the prosperous farmers of Morgan county. His keen perception told him that land would advance in this section of the state in a few years so he set about to acquire some of it. Through his thrift, honesty and executive ability, he acquired much land and was an authority in the production of grain and in the raising of livestock. During these years he found a true helpmeet in his wife, who shared with him the successes which came to them through their efforts and devotions to that which was right and honorable. Mr. Duffner was a man of broad sympathy, thoughtful toward his fellowman and ever refrained from saying or doing anything that would offend. He was an affable man to meet and well knew the lessons of the hardships and trials which came to those who settled in this part of the state years ago. He leaves a record of goodness and faithfulness for that which stands for the best and his children will indeed have left them a fragrant memory. Mr. Duffner was a devout member of the Church of Our Savior and gave liberally to its support.

Eleven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Duffner, nine of whom survive. The mother died seventeen years ago, Joseph in infancy and James when 13 years of age. Those surviving are Mrs. John Flynn of Clements, Mrs. Thomas Walsh of Jacksonville, Mrs. Joseph Bergschneider of Franklin, Mrs. A. W. Becker of this city, Mrs. J. J. Curtin of Chicago, Anna, Margaret and Gusse and Thomas Duffner of Jacksonville. He also leaves one brother, Nicholas Duffner, and one sister, Mrs. Agatha Frickey of Herman, Mo. Mr. Duffner made a visit to his brother and sister two years ago, the first time he had seen them in twenty-five years. He also had one brother, Joseph Herman, who died several years ago.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the Church of Our Savior. Friends will kindly omit flowers.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY

Miss Grace Hendricks Passed Away in Few Hours After Being Taken to Our Savior's Hospital.

Miss Grace Hendricks of 337 Broadway Alley, who was taken suddenly ill Monday night and removed to Our Savior's hospital at 7 o'clock, died this (Tuesday) morning at 2 o'clock, having never regained consciousness. Miss Hendricks had not been well for two days and her condition was rather serious all day Sunday and Monday. She had made her home in Jacksonville for a number of years being born and reared in Springfield.

On account of her sudden death it is expected that a coronor's inquest will be held to day.

Chief of Police Davis notified the girl's parents this morning of her death. The family resides at 129 East Union street.

A CLOSE SHAVE

Chicago, Feb. 3.—John Holm, a newspaper man, had one of the closest shaves of his life today. He was shaved by Perry E. Hall, a barber, who constantly discussed the ease with which he might cut Holm's throat. Holm, believing that the man either was insane or under the influence of drugs, teased with him until the shaving process was over and then caused his arrest. Hall will have a hearing tomorrow.

RULES GOVERNING PARCEL POST.

Since the parcel post has been inaugurated by the government many inquiries have been received at the Journal office concerning regulations governing this service. Friday the Journal printed the first of a series of articles covering the rules governing this service.

The fourth installment follows: 6. Eggs will be accepted for mailing regardless of distance when each egg is wrapped separately and surrounded with excelsior, cotton, or other suitable material, and packed in a container made of double corrugated pasteboard, metal, wood, or other suitable material in such manner as to place each egg on its end and to prevent them from striking together or against the side or top of the container, with an outer cover of double corrugated pasteboard, metal, wood, or other suitable material, and wrapped so that nothing can escape from the package. All such parcels must be labeled "Eggs."

Sec. 35. Salted, dried, smoked, or cured meats and other meat products may be admitted to the mails and may be transported, regardless of distance, from one state or territory or the District of Columbia to another state or territory or the District of Columbia when the provisions of the act of June 3, 1906, and the regulations promulgated thereunder by the department of agriculture, have been complied with; provided, however, that fresh meat in any form may be transported only within the first zone. (See sec. 34.)

Sec. 36. Specimens of dried blood or of diseased tissues or communicable diseases, cultures and tubercular sputum may be mailed in accordance with instructions of the treasury department (bureau of public health and Marine-Hospital service), as promulgated by the postoffice department under order No. 3064, of April 22, 1910.

Sec. 37. Postmasters must refuse to receive for mailing parcels not properly indorsed, or packed for safe shipment.

"Held for Postage," Misdirected Matter, Etc.

Sec. 38. When matter on which the postage is wholly unpaid or insufficiently prepaid is deposited at any free-delivery postoffice for local delivery and the sender is unknown, notice of detention (form 1543) need not be sent, but such matter shall be delivered to the addressee by carrier, and the deficient postage collected by means of parcel post postage-due stamps affixed. If the addressee refuses to pay the postage, the matter shall be sent to the division of dead letters. (See sec. 55.)

Sec. 39. The following matter, when it can not be returned to the sender, shall be sent from the office of mailing to the division of dead letters: "Held for postage" matter on which the addressee refuses to pay the postage; misdirected and illegibly addressed matter which can not be dispatched to the addressee; matter which exceeds the limit of weight or size prescribed by law (see sec. 15); and all matter so mutilated or damaged that it can not be forwarded to its destination. Perishable matter must not be sent to the division of dead letters (see sec. 47, par. 9).

Sec. 40. When a parcel obviously misdirected is received at the office of mailing and the correct address is later supplied by the sender, credit should be allowed for the amount of postage affixed. If the sender is unknown the matter is fully prepaid, the correct address may be supplied and the parcel forwarded.

Sec. 41. When any article of destructive mail matter (see secs. 16 and 17) is deposited in the postoffice, or is received for forwarding, the postmaster must not send it to the division of dead letters, but notify the sender that it can not be transported by mail. If the sender is not known, the postmaster shall notify the addressee. If, at the expiration of thirty days, it has not been withdrawn, the postmaster shall report the facts to the fourth assistant postmaster general (division of dead letters) and await instructions.

Sec. 42. Parcels on which the postage is not prepaid, or is insufficiently paid, which are inadvertently dispatched, must not be stopped in transit or rated up at intermediate offices.

Sec. 43. All parcel post matter liable to damage other than mail or injury to the person of any postal employee, or which is in excess of the prescribed weight or size, which by inadvertence reaches the office of address, shall be delivered, provided the addressee shall furnish the name and address of the sender. If the addressee refuses to give the required information, the postmaster shall hold the package subject to the order of the postmaster general.

2. When any matter is delivered under the provisions of this section, the postmaster shall make report thereof to the first assistant postmaster general, giving the date and office of mailing. Deficient postage on parcels in excess of the prescribed weight must be collected by affixing the proper amount in parcel post postage-due stamps.

Sec. 44. Postmasters must not affix parcel post postage-due stamps to part paid or unpaid matter until the delivery thereof can be effected. Such stamps must not be affixed to matter forwarded by request of the addressee, returned to writer, or sent to the division of dead letters.

2. When postmasters have no parcel post postage-due stamps on hand they must collect the amount of postage due, and as soon as they obtain such stamps an amount equal to the postage collected must be affixed to a sheet of paper, canceled, and forwarded to the third assistant postmaster general with a statement of the facts.

PASMORE TRIO GIVES*FINE CONCERT AT I. W. C.

Musical Number of Artists' Course Under the Auspices of the Musical Department of the College Pleases Large Audience.

The Pasmore Trio, was the attraction at the Illinois College of Music last night, under the auspices of the Artists' course. The Trio consists of Miss Mary Pasmore, violinist; Miss Suzanne Pasmore, pianist; and Miss Vera Poppe, cello.

The Trio is to be commended for their excellent ensemble work and especially was remarkable talent shown in the Scherzo, Leggero vivace number of the Mendelssohn selections. At both of their appearances they were forced to respond to encores. Miss Poppe, the cellist, displayed complete mastery over her instrument, playing with good taste and style and her solo was such as to demand a hearty encore. The pianist played with fine feeling and showed wonderful interpreting powers. "The Polonaise Brillante" was perhaps the most appreciated of the violinist's numbers. She plays with grace and fire and especially was the smoothness of her bowing commendable. The entire program, which follows, was one of merit:

Trio in minor, Opus 49.....Mendelssohn
Molto allegro agitato
Andante con moto tranquillo
Scherzo, Leggero e vivace
Finale, Allegro assai appassionato.

Cello solo—
Hungarian Fantasy.....David Popper

Piano solos—
Nocturnette from Carnaval Mignon
.....Schutt
Waltz in E minor.....Chopin

Violin solos—
Bye Baby Bunting.....H. B. Pasmore
Polonaise Brillante.....Wienlawski

Trio—
Four Episodes (Impression Pictures) Op. 72.....Schutt
Poco allegretto grazioso
Allegro vivace con molto passione
Nocturne, Moderato con dolce sentimento Vivace.

GRACE CHURCH REVIVAL

A good Monday night audience was present at the Grace church revival when the pastor, Rev. J. W. Miller discussed the subject "There is Reason in All Things." He took as a text "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sin be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." Mr. Miller said that the great reason of the gospel would make it impossible to supplant it by anything else. The Lord made human reason and the gospel message to appeal to it. The teacher who holds up before people the message will always have a hearing because the human heart and mind are made to fit it. The pastor took up the call to reason in the text and showed that the majority of the people outside of the church give the matter no consideration. "Thou sayest thou art a Christian, but thy body else's sin, but your own sin. The speaker pointed to the fact that Shakespeare portrayed sin in his writings but never offered a remedy and that in the whole world Jesus is the remedy of sin. The sermon was a convincing one and left a deep impression upon the audience.

All the services were well attended Sunday. In the morning the pastor preached about "Visions and Service" and there were three accessions, Prof. W. A. Gore and wife and W. D. Cody. The sermon of the evening was based upon the story of Lazarus and the rich man and was one productive of much good.

Thursday is the day of prayer for colleges and on that evening Rev. Mr. Miller will have a service especially for young people. Every student in the city will be invited to attend and the pastor will have a message especially for them.

MAKE DIRECT TAXES ON INCOMES POSSIBLE

the $30,000,000 collected under the present corporation tax. "One of the important results of an income tax," Representative Hull said, "will be the curbing of unnecessary federal expenditures. When a great part of the government's income is derived by a direct tax upon the citizens of the nation they will scrutinize more carefully the appropriations made by congress."

Probably it will remain for President-elect Wilson to make official announcement of the income tax amendment to the constitution. Up to date the state department has received notices from only forty-four, West Virginia, Delaware, Wyoming and New Mexico not having reported on their action. The department cannot act upon anything less than the official certificates of governors and secretaries of state.

Must Move With Extreme Caution.

Even when all the certificates are had, the executive will not be in a position formally to announce that fact. In a matter of this importance it is necessary to move with extreme caution and Secretary Knox, the custodian of the certificates, will refer them to the solicitor of the department of state for examination as to their sufficiency. Already, some questions have been raised as to the legality of the returns. One was of the state of Kentucky, where the legislature initially adopted the amendment in advance of the receipt from Secretary Knox of the formal communication which should serve as a basis for a state's action. In consequence of this haste, and the use of a newspaper clipping, the language of the enacting resolution was slightly erroneous. As soon as the error was discovered an attempt was made to correct it by a re-enactment of the resolution in proper form which action, however, has raised an issue which must be passed upon by the solicitor. It is recalled that Secretary of State Seward in 1863 practically referred to congress the question as to whether the fourth amendment had been properly ratified by the states because of some such irregularity.

It is probable that Secretary Knox will not perform his ministerial act of announcing the ratification of the sixteenth amendment upon the basis of the present returns but will await the receipt of certificates from some of the states which have not yet acted upon the amendment but are reasonably certain to do so favorably. In this case and allowing for the time required for a painstaking examination by the solicitor it probably will be after the fourth of March before the president's notice can issue of the adoption of the income tax amendment.

To Consider Money Trust Report.

The house banking and currency committee is preparing to consider the report of that body on the money trust, which Chairman Pujo with the aid and assistance of Samuel Untermyer counsel for the Pujo subcommittee now is drafting. A meeting of the full committee has been called for Wednesday to consider, routine and soon thereafter the committee will take up the "money trust" report. It will be well toward the end of the session before the report with its legislative resolutions can be worked through the subcommittee and the full committee of the house. The report as framed by Mr. Pujo will embrace recommendations on the following principal points:

Regulation of the stock exchange through the postoffice department by forbidding the use of the mails for transmitting of certain transactions deemed evil, such as short sales, manipulation and the establishment of false values.

Regulation of clearing houses through an act making their incorporation a condition precedent to the membership of national banks in such organizations charters to eliminate the regulation of interest or exchange charges by clearing houses. Stringent provisions to prevent national banks from loaning to their officers or directors and to prevent national banks or their officers from participating in syndicate flotations of new securities.

Refuse to Consider Owen Bill.

By a tie vote the senate today refused to consider the Owen bill for a federal department of public health.

To Extend Two Cent Postage.

Extension of two-cent foreign letter postage to include Denmark, Sweden, Norway and the Netherlands is the object of a resolution introduced today by Representative Steenerson calling on President Taft for information of the agreements for two cent letters to England and Germany.

Report Diplomatic Bill.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill carrying $3,764,643, was reported to the house today by the foreign affairs committee. The total is $200,000 below the official statement and $180,000 above last year's appropriation.

Democrats Go Over Chemical Tariff.

The chemical schedule of the tariff law producing four per cent of the total government revenue from customs, was considered in executive session by the Democrats of the house committee on ways and means today. The schedule will not be materially altered from the Democratic bill which passed the house last session by a vote of 179 to 127 when the present Governor Hanna of North Dakota was the only Republican who voted with the Democrats for the measure. The revenue of $12,000,000 gained from the chemical schedule last year will not be materially disturbed.

Propose Land Loan Bureau.

The creation of a land loan bureau in the treasury department is proposed in a bill introduced today by Representative Buchanan of Illinois. The measure would provide for the issuance of at least $100,000,000 in United States notes to be loaned on farm lands on a basis of fifty per cent of assessed valuation at 5 per cent interest for not more than 20 years.

Argue Bill Before Taft.

Final arguments for and against the Jones-Dillingham immigration bill with its much discussed literacy test will be made before President Taft Thursday at the white house.

Legalize Custom of Manufacturers.

The custom long followed by cigar manufacturers allowed employees to make twenty-one cigars a week each for their own consumption without paying the regular internal revenue tax upon the product, was legalized by congress today, when the senate passed a bill already passed by the house amending the internal revenue laws in this congress.

Senate Passes Two Bills.

The senate today passed the bill already acted on by the house making the admitted handwriting of any person competent evidence in a court of law with which to compare hand writing which might be questioned. The so-called "enlarged homestead bill," previously passed by the house also was passed by the senate. This bill establishes the right of a homesteader on western dry lands to secure a 320 acre farm through a residence of five years.

Grants Increase of Pension.

The senate today passed a bill granting an increase of pension to Harriet Pierson Porter, widow of Major General Fitz John Porter, of Mexican war fame. Mrs. Porter now receives a pension of $12 a month. She would receive $50 a month by the terms of the bill passed today. Senator McCumber of North Dakota who opposed the increase declared the widow of Major General Porter has an annual income of $1,844, and that this was a case of "favoritism, pure and simple."

Houlihan and William Shoupe, Chicago labor labor men still confined at Leavenworth.

Bele company, publishers of the Dallas and Galveston "News" and the widow of the late Col. A. H. Bele who founded the Dallas "News" and prior to that time published the Galveston "News."

Queer Book Titles.

"These old books," said the inquiry as he pointed to a dingy shelf, "are curious for their titles."

"Here is a volume of sermons printed in Salem in 1732. 'Sermons by Asa' is its scornful name."

"Here is a book dated 1743 that is called 'Look to It or I'll Stab Ye.' It is a treatise on polyanth."

"This is a pamphlet by a spinster against the young men of the seventeenth century. Its title is 'A Dissertation on the Pertness of Our Youth. In General, Especially Such as Are Trained Up at Tea Tables.'"

"A return blast to that dissertation is this pamphlet of the same year: 'Quigues For Upstart Newfangled Gentlemen; or, A Glass to View the Pride of Vainglorious Woman.'"

Nails.

America has the honor of having made the first cut nails, toward the close of the eighteenth century. Before that nails were made by hand, and their manufacture was a household industry. Cut nails are made by machinery from plates rolled to the proper width and thickness. They may be made of steel or of malleable iron. Wire nails, though originally a French invention, were brought to perfection in the United States.

Birthday Dinner in Honor of Lyman F. Joy—Eighty Years Old Feb. 3

The 80th birthday of Lyman F. Joy was fittingly observed Monday by a dinner party at which his children and a number of immediate relatives were the guests. Mr. Joy, who has long been one of the best known residents of Morgan county, lives in Joy Prairie with his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joy, and it was there that the dinner was given. The company included Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Joy of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. French and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pratt. It was worthy of note too that the day marked the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Joy.

Mr. Joy, although he has seen so much of life, is still strong and vigorous in mind and body and in his quiet way thoroughly enjoyed the festivities Monday. His children presented him with eighty carnations in token of the years he has spent on earth. More than a hundred post cards of congratulations were received in addition to numerous letters and telegrams. All living former ministers of Joy Prairie Congregational church, of which Mr. Joy has long been a stalwart supporter, sent letters of appreciation, and among the telegrams were those received from C. F. Joy of Washington, D. C., and George Dunbaugh of New York city.

The dinner was served at 12:30 o'clock and it was one of many excellent courses and the guest of honor and the other guests as well felt greatly obligated to the host and hostess. The birthday cake was a somewhat notable feature for it is not often that one is seen decorated with eighty candles. Charles H. Joy took a picture of the company with his kodak and altogether the occasion was one of great delight. Some lines which the day inspired were written by Mrs. Charles B. Joy as follows:

Just one year ago tonight, love
I became your happy bride,
Changed a mansion for a cottage
To dwell by the lakeside.

You told me I'd be happy, and Much happiness I'd see,
For today we are celebrating Lyman's jubilee.

Eighty, did you say dear?
I can hardly think that so,
My, it is surprising how
The years do come and go.

Our thoughts today for Lyman
Are to wish him not more wealth
But the greatest gift on earth to man
An abundance of good health.

So here's to Lyman on his 80th birthday,
Here's to his sons and daughters
eight

Who are all here to help him celebrate.

Here's to his grandchildren, six they say.

Here's to his brothers, C. B. & Al.
Here's to Angie his little pal.

Here's to his nephew, Charles the great.

Delighted to come to the birthday
fete.

Last but not least here's to Fannie and Ed.

Who have given us this royal spread.

Long may they prosper
Both the large and the small Ever looking to Lyman
As the wisest of them all.

Lyman F. Joy is a son of the late John B. Joy and was born at Durham, N. H., Feb. 3, 1833. When he was a lad he came with his father to this county when the elder Joy acquired 1200 acres of land in the Joy Prairie neighborhood. The son attended school in the neighborhood and afterward took a course at Illinois college. In 1855 he was married and moved to the fine farm which is still his home. Mr. Joy has been a successful farmer and has been known for half a century as one of the public spirited citizens of this county. He has always been a Republican and has taken a keen interest in party affairs. A man of strong character, of kindly spirit, of wide learning, his long life has been one of great usefulness and service and many are the friends who rejoice in the great degree of health and happiness which are his. Mr. Joy for more than twenty years has been a stockholder and director of the Journal company and his service and advice have been greatly valued through the years.

Eather and Ruth Robinson daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Robinson, who reside on North Main street, had a narrow escape from being severely burned Monday. Eather aged 15, was making some candy for her little 18 months old sister, Ruth. The little baby got a chair and pulled it over to the stove and took hold of the handle of the vessel in which the candy was cooking. Part of the fluid went on the child's face and neck. The older girl in rescuing her sister, also received some bad burns on the arms. The injuries are not considered dangerous although it will be several days before they are healed.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

A number of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Black who reside north of the city, gave them a pleasant surprise last night. The neighbors took advantage of the snow and went to the home in bob-sleds where a pleasant evening was spent in playing games and listening to some fine music. All took along something good to eat so this part of the program was enjoyed. Among those present were: Archie Bridgman and family; Walker Henderson and family; Harry McGhee and family; Charles Young and family; Irvin Patterson and family; James Barber and family; George Gouveia and family; Edward Shibe and family; Richard Black and family; William Bourne and family; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gouveia, Mrs. Sarah Holman, Parker Boone and Harry Samples.

The Progressive Degree team of the M. P. L. No. 269 were entertained Monday evening at the home of Henry Hemple in South Jacksonville at an oyster supper. Games and dancing were enjoyed and the entire event proved one of much pleasure.

Mrs. C. O. Leake and Mrs. Fred McDevall gave a birthday party Saturday evening at Mrs. Leake's home of West Lafayette avenue in honor of their brother Albert Elliot. The young man is 21 years of age and the important event was celebrated fittingly. Twenty-five or thirty young people were present and the evening was very happily spent playing various games. Refreshments added to the pleasure of the evening.

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS TONIGHT.
From Shakespeare to Harold Bell Wright is a long jump, but no writer from the dramatic day to that of the novelist has attained the number of readers. Mr. Wright's most popular novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills", has been made into a play by its author with the assistance of Elsbeth W. Reynolds and will be given its first local presentation at the Grand tonight.

The story is one of the Ozark mountains and teaches a lesson of the simple life. Its characters live and act naturally; it is a play that attracts by its simplicity yet holds the auditor with breathless interest from the first curtain to the last.

Messrs. Gaskell and MacVitty, the producers, are said to have given the play an excellent cast and a very beautiful production.

DUNNE ASSUMES OFFICE

In writing, he made a felony, punishable by imprisonment, elicited the first applause from the members of the legislature and the spectators. The heartiest and most extensive enthusiasm of the ceremonies was accorded Hon. C. J. Doyle, the retiring secretary of state. Mr. Doyle was appointed secretary of state by Governor Deneen to fill the unexpired term of James A. Rose, deceased. He served only since June 1, last, but in that length of time he endeared himself to the politicians and members of the legislature and particularly to the members of the lower house of the general assembly over which he presided through the long speakership deadlock.

The public reception held tonight at the executive mansion the first official social function there in twenty years under a Democratic administration furnished a fitting ending for the day's inaugural ceremonies. It was a brilliant affair given not to a few, or the members of any party, but to the entire public. The guests were received by Governor and Mrs. Dunne standing at the head of the receiving line assisted by the other new state officers and their ladies. In the receiving line were Lieut.-Gov. Barrett O'Hara and wife, Secretary of State Harry Woods and Mrs. Woods, State Auditor James J. Brady, State Treasurer William Ryan Jr. and Mrs. Ryan, Attorney General P. J. Lucey and Mrs. Lucey.

MINERS RELIEVED.

Blue Mound Families Given Emergency Donation of $750.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 3.—Gold and starving coal miners in Blue Mound have been temporarily relieved by a donation of $750 from the state organization of United Mine Workers. The money was distributed to seventy-five families by Bernard Murphy of the state executive board. The distress among the miners has been caused by the failure of the Austin Coal company and the miners' inability to collect $11,000 in wages due them. The number of men affected is 142.

SWEEPING REFORMS EXPECTED

Des Moines Ia., Feb. 3.—Sweeping reforms in the management of the states business are expected to result from a joint resolution which passed the house to day and will come up before the senate tomorrow. The resolution gives the committee on entrenchment and reform authority to employ expert accountants and efficiency engineers for the purpose of making a thorough investigation of the affairs of the state. It also permits changes considered necessary to the management of the state institutions.

DOES NOT AFFECT MERITS OF CONTROVERSY

Boston, Feb. 3.—United States District Attorney, A. P. French, who has charge of the government's case against the United Shoe Machinery company said tonight that to day's adverse decision of the United States supreme court which sustained federal District Judge Putnam of Boston is throwing out two of the five counts in the two indictments against the company did not affect the merits of the controversy.

MINERS RETURN TO WORK.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 3.—Accepting the advice of union leaders the 7,000 mine workers of eight collieries of the Lackawanna Coal company who quit work Saturday returned today. Union officials assured the strikers that nearly all the engineers have joined the organization and that the others have agreed to become members. The miners refused to work with engineers who were not members of the union and walked out, claiming that non-union engineers were still employed.

WANT AMENDMENT TO STATE MARRIAGE LAWS.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—An amendment to the state marriage laws providing for a fifteen day period between the granting of a marriage license and the performing of the wedding ceremony will be asked by members of the Illinois State Divorce commission. This decision was reached at a meeting of the organization tonight. Judge Marcus Kavanaugh, who presided at the meeting, suggested that a thirty day period would be better but his plan was voted down.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT

Officers and Twenty-one Directors Are to be Chosen—Every Member Should Attend.

Tonight the members of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in the Armory for the purpose of choosing the officers for the coming year. Each person who signed up to become a member is entitled to vote for the president and twenty-one directors, providing that he has paid his dues up to date. A printed list of all the members will be distributed at the meeting and those not having paid their dues according to by-laws can not be allowed to vote for the new officers.

The secretary has not been able to collect from everyone, but privilege will be given to pay there.

Each member should feel his responsibility and consider the best men irrespective of friendship or prejudices for officers of the association. The office of president is regarded by commercial clubs in other cities as quite an honor and it should be held in such esteem here.

As announced previously Jeffries' band will give a concert beginning at 7:30 sharp and there have been a number of other special features arranged.

INTRODUCE BILL TO PROVIDE STATE CONTROL OF LOAN BUSINESS

Under Proposed Iowa Measure Provides For $1,000 Bond and Auditor is Given Control.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 3.—One of the important bills introduced today was one designed to regulate the business of town agents. It provides for state control and regulation of all loan business outside the regular channels and in which more than the legal rate is required. It requires that the business be licensed and the names of the persons or corporation conducting the business be recorded with the state auditor. It provides for a bond of $1,000, the keeping of a record of all business transactions in the English language where it may be inspected at any time by the auditor or his assistant. The auditor is given the control of the business. If the auditor believes the law has been violated he may revoke the license of the firm to do business. A maximum of 2 per cent per month is fixed for chattel loans.

It will be necessary for a divorce petition to remain on file in the office of the clerk of the district court for one year before trial can be had if a bill introduced in the senate meets with the approval of the Iowa legislature.

Another bill introduced by the committee on rules fixes the time for the inauguration of governor and lieutenant governor. A joint convention of the legislature to canvass the vote is to be held on the second Tuesday in January after each biennial election.

The following day is set for the inauguration.

REBELS RE-APPEAR ON BORDER.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 3.—The re-appearance of rebels at various points on the border was reported to day to General Stever at Fort Bliss. Col. A. T. Hatfield, of the thirteenth cavalry part on the Mexican line made the startling report that he was talking to day with general Emiliano Zapata the rebel leader of southern Mexico. Col. Hatfield declared that a man representing himself as Zapata came to the international boundary line with his aide and made some inquiries regarding a shipment of supplies consigned to the rebels but held by United States troops. Rebel bands also are appearing once more along the Texas border west of Juarez. The location of the main group under Salazar remains in doubt but it is declared by rebel agents here that Salazar is moving into the Casas Grandes district.

AUTOMOBILE SHOW OPENS.

Washington, Feb. 3.—President Taft, whose administration has been marked by official favor for the automobile as against the love of former occupants of the white house for the horse, tonight pressed a button that officially opened the Washington Automobile show of 1913. The spark flashed at exactly 8 o'clock, released a big American flag in the auto show hall, lighted 1500 incandescent bulbs and rang four huge gongs.

SAYS HE IS PERSECUTED.

New York, Feb. 3.—General Castro issued a statement tonight in which he said the records in the American legation at Caracas would show how the American government had persecuted and still was persecuting him. He said that while the terms of the protocol entered into by Venezuela and the United States after the blockade of Venezuela by Americans was being faithfully and carefully carried out, by Venezuela, Americans opposing him.

The statement also said the United States had aided General Gomez to seize the presidency of Venezuela.

PREVENTS PANIC IN THEATRE.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—The "playing My Country 'Tis Thee", prevented a panic in a West Side motion picture show tonight when smoke from a burning nearby building came through the floors.

The operator of the machine also threw "Good Night" on the curtain. A small boy shouted "fire" when he saw the smoke and part of the audience rushed for exits.

The fire was in the building of the Samuel Lyons & Co. dealers in furniture and household supplies. Loss was estimated at $100,000.

Wan, Weary and Worn Out

If You Feel Fagged to a Finish and Utterly Used Up Here is Quick Relief.

Don't Be Chained to the Hitching Post of Wearyland.

Half the people you meet complain of weary muscles, stagnant brain, jangled nerves, and a mournful desire to lay down and just quit. Most of these people have been using nervines that spasmodically flare up the nerves only to die down again, as die they must. Avoid nerve stimulants. Bear in mind that this worn out feeling is due to poor blood, to bacteria in the water you drink; to the multiplying of destructive germs in the blood faster than they can be overcome by the white corpuscles; and to what is known as auto-toxemia, that condition where the venous or impure blood accumulates faster than it can be replaced by the red arterial blood.

If you feel pulled out to go to any drug store and ask for a bottle of S. S. S. Swift's Sure Specific. Here is a remedy that gets at work in a twinkling. It just naturally rushes right into your blood, seatters germs right and left, up and down and sideways.

You feel better at once, not from a stimulant, not from the action of drugs, but from the rational effect of a natural medicine just as active and just as timely as to a man who has been lost in the mountains, is about starved and comes across a settler just cooking a savory meal of good honest beef. Do not neglect to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. It will make you feel better in just a few minutes. It is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. ## CITY COUNCIL HELD

MONDAY SESSION

Fire Insurance Company Inspector Recommends Auto Truck for Fire Department—Annual Report of Water Department.

The first meeting of the city council for February was held Monday morning. Mayor Davis, Commissioners Brennan, Knollenberg and Newman answered the roll call by Clerk Pyatt. The minutes were read and approved. A report was read from Mr. Townsend representing insurance companies suggesting the purchase of an auto truck for the fire department. Reports of officers were read including the annual report of W. H. Cobb, water superintendent. This report showed excellent collections for the entire year and is printed below.

A communication was read from the Travelers Indemnity Co., of St. Louis stating that the boilers of the city light plant are in good condition.

Reports of officers were read and approved and approved bills were ordered paid when funds are available. Commissioner Brennan stated that during the visit of Mr. Townsend the latter tested hydrants in various parts of the city and found them in good condition so far as taps are concerned and the pressure satisfactory in the east part of the city and in some of the west part. Mr. Townsend however did not consider the water mains leading to or from the reservoir as large enough to give all desired pressure.

Reports of officers follows as well as the letter from Mr. Townsend.

Makes Recommendations.

Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 2, 1913.

To the Honorable Mayor George W. Davis, Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Sir: Confirming my statement this morning, following an investigation of the fire fighting facilities of Jacksonville, would say that considering the area to be covered and the values to be protected by the fire department, I consider it of the utmost importance that motor driven fire apparatus be installed.

If not, at least two additional fire department stations will have to be established with men and horse drawn apparatus, in order to obtain an equivalent of service of the motor driven apparatus.

The cost of additional stations and horse drawn apparatus and maintenance of same would be much in excess of that for motor driven apparatus installed at present headquarters; and even if two additional stations with horse drawn apparatus were installed, serious delay would be encountered in getting the fire engine to portions of town that need additional pressure on account of street grades and distance from fire department to headquarters.

I therefore recommend the use of motor driven fire apparatus as the most effective way of increasing the efficiency of the fire department.

E. R. Townsend, Your very sincerely,
Fire Protection Engineer for Stock Fire Insurance Companies.

Pumping Station.

Put the building in first class repair.

Installed new Vacuum pump.

The old wooden intake which was badly decayed was removed and replaced by a substantial concrete intake. Extensive and substantial repairs were made on the dam. Extensive and substantial repairs were made on the creek. The creek was cleaned and deepened, thereby holding a great deal more water. Big well was also cleaned. (This work was done by the commissioner of this department). Laid 16 inch cast iron pipe across the creek, connecting with the lake file.

Widenham & Daub Wells.

The pumps at this station were assembled the first of May; and made ready for use in case of necessity, which was found unnecessary to operate the same, as we had a sufficient supply of water in the creek and lake. Now the pumps have again been disconnected and drained for the winter, and are at this time in first class condition.

Laid Water Pipe as Follows.

Laid 800 feet of 6 inch water main on East Court street.

Total amount of water main laid, 1,400 feet, with one hydrant and one 6 inch valve, one 10 inch valve, and two 4 inch valves.

Hydrants, etc.

Remove four old hydrants and replaced with new ones.

All hydrants were flushed and drained the first week in November for the winter season.

Installed 16 sectional concrete valve boxes.

Total number fire hydrants ..... 214

Total number valves ..... 136

Total number meters ..... 1,422

Total number water consumers, 1,422 (This makes an increase of 40 consumers during the past year).

The city now has approximately 35 miles of water pipe.

Water Supply.

The water supply for the past year has been obtained entirely from the creek and lake.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. Cobb,
Water Superintendent.

MISS STALLO WEDS A PRINCE.

Paris, Feb. 3.—Another American heiress acquired a title today through the marriage of Miss Helen Stallo, who inherited a large share of the millions left by her grandfather, the late Alexander McDonald, of Cincinnati, to Prince Michel Murat, a nephew of the ex-Empress Eugenie.

The religious ceremony, which took place in the Church of St. Honore d'Eylau on Place Victor Hugo, drew a distinguished gathering. Miss Stallo was given away by her father, Edmund H. Stallo, of Cincinnati and New York. The witnesses for the bride were Myron T. Herick, the American ambassador, and Henry Watterson of Louisville.

Prince Michel was attended by the Grand Duke Paul of Russia.

The couple plan to spend their honeymoon in Algiers. In May they intend to sail for the United States to remain until autumn. On their return to Paris they will take up their home in the magnificent apartment on Rue de Lubeck, which for some time has been occupied by Mr. Stallo and his two daughters.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. For sale by all dealers.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD". It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat ..... 10.00 to 14 per cent
Crude Protein ..... 52.50 to 60 per cent
Crude Fibre ..... 1.00 to 3 per cent
Phosphate ..... 10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form. It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration. It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuf, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE is recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above. It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

Everybody knows how the good old-fashioned mustard plaster relieves a cold, an ache or a pain.

Your mother and your grandmother always applied it. The plaster burned awfully. But it surely brought relief.

MUSTEROLE is the same remedy without the plaster and with out the blister. A clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard.

You don't have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub MUSTEROLE on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually. It is a staple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to patients. Ask your doctor.

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your druggist cannot supply you send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar, postpaid.

Woman's Beauty is Based on Health

To Have Health, Bowel Movement is Absolutely Necessary—How Best to Obtain It.

If woman's beauty depended upon cosmetics every woman would be a picture of loveliness. But beauty lies deeper than that. It lies in health. In the majority of cases the basis of health, and the cause of sickness, can be traced to the action of the bowels.

The headaches, the lassitude, the sallow skin and the lustless eyes are usually due to constipation. So many things that women do habitually conduce to this trouble. They do not eat carefully, the eat indigestible foods because the foods are served daintily and they do not exercise enough. But whatever the particular cause may be it is important that the condition should be corrected.

An ideal remedy for women, and one especially suited to their delicate requirements, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of women endorse highly. Mrs. Jennie Snedeker, 1941 West Monroe St., Chicago, testifies that she is "cured of grave stomach and bowel troubles by using Syrup Pepsin and without the aid of a doctor or any other medicine." All the family can use Syrup Pepsin, for thousands of mothers give it to babies and children. It is also admirably suited to the requirements of elderly people, in fact to all who of reason of age or infirmity cannot stand harsh salts, cathartics, pills or purgatives. These should always be avoided for at best their effect is only for that day, while a genuine bottle will be mailed you.

MRS. JENNIE SNEDEKER.

remedy like Syrup Pepsin acts mildly but permanently.

It can be conveniently obtained at any drug store at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. You will find it gentle in action, pleasant in taste, and free from griping, and its tonic properties have a distinct value to women. It is the most widely used laxative-remedy in America to day and thousands of families are now never without it.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample only for that day, while a genuine bottle will be mailed you.

THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUTH

The Journal I referred to the anniversary of Robert E. Lee, at which the United Daughters of the Confederacy took part.

I desire to amend the statement by saying that it was a joint celebration of Lee and Jackson.

First Methodist Church, South in Victoria on Sunday night, January 19th, I assured the fine audience that I had ever held Robert E. Lee in high honor, and that I had often told my northern friends that Robert E. Lee must have been a mighty general or it would not have taken us four long hard fought years to lick him. And how many generals did we pit against him. He took supreme command May 31st, 1862, and was still in command April 9th, 1865. How many different men did we try out before we got a Grant?

Well I did not compromise any of loyal Federal love, and won the sympathy of an elegant Southern lady who came forward at the close of the sermon and invited me to attend the Anniversary referred to at the start.

The beautiful city hall was crowded. The high school chorus, aided by several star singers furnished appropriate music. The walls and stands were draped by the stars and stripes woven among the Confederate colors. Two young ladies read gold-medal essays on the Lee and Jackson, and some old judge an ex-Confederate Major, delivered a spicy speech. Then think of it! A red hot boy of the north was listened to with marked courtesy as he gave greetings from the one time foes in battle.

Everything was shorn of rancor until the set program was over and a bunch of singers got together and began to sing "I Wish I Was in Dixie". The old fellows in gray could not keep still, and finally one bearing a striking resemblance to "Tecumseh" Sherman rushed out into the middle of the floor, waved his hat and shouted "Hurrah for Jeff Davis".

Well, I thought that I was indeed Rip Van Winkle, all except instead of twenty years I was back fifty years. It sounded untimely. It was the first shout that I had ever heard for Jeff Davis. I had not thought that there was one left within the shores who would still hurrah for poor old Jeff. It taught me that while we have a "New South" in many ways, the old spirit of '61 rankles yet within the hollow breasts of the boys who wore the gray.

But they are good losers. They hate the name of Lincoln, but will applaud every reference to Grant, quote the closing paragraphs of one of the young ladies essays, and it will be a true index to the attitude the South maintains to day.

No brighter records adorn the pages of history than the accounts of the valor of the Confederates during the siege of ten long months, just before the final collapse came. The half-starved Southerners were surrounded on all sides by a vast number of Unionists and their numbers were thinning daily, by death and exhaustion. Lee, being too noble and conscientious to sacrifice the lives of so many when it was almost useless to resist, accepted the terms of surrender offered by General Grant. And let it be said right here that we now forgive Grant for the suffering he caused us, because of his conduct toward Lee on this occasion. Our hero and our brave men were subjected to no humiliations, prisoners were taken, the soldiers were permitted to return home and also to keep their side arms, no guns were fired or any other signs of victory given. All that was required was the oath of the soldiers not to enlist again in the war until exchanged. Our brave Confederates, too, were given the food of which they stood so sorely in need.

After the war Lee was offered many honorable positions, but he rejected all of them in order to take the position of president of Washington College, which was named Washington and Lee University after his death. He devoted the last years of his life to training Southern boys, and if we could follow him through his career, we would find every step of it marked by the same skill, the same earnestness, and the same devotion to duty that characterized his military life. His death occurred October 12, 1870, surrounded by those who honored and loved him. It has been well said of him that he was Caesar without his ambition, Frederick without his tyranny, Napoleon without his selfishness and Washington without his reward.

In my next, I have been asked to give a candid opinion as to a poor man's chance in the Very Truly,
Hy. S. Alkire.

ALLEGED MURDERER ON TRIAL

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 3.—The case of Henry Romine, which was brought here on charge of venue from Jennings county, was called for trial today. Romine is charged with the murder of the McQuaid brothers at their home near North Vernon on the night of October 7, last. The alleged accomplices in the crime, J. Rufus Clarke and Henry Tyler, are to be tried at a later time of court.

Conductor S. L. Miller, Norfolk, Neb., on Bonestell Division of C. & N. W. Ry. Co., recommends Foley Kidney Pills and says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with very satisfactory results and endorse their use for any one afflicted with kidney trouble. They are all right." ## LITTLE GLIMPSES OF FASCINATING BOOKS.

Goethe's "Faust"—Dr. A. B. Moore.

Kipling's "Kim"—Miss Fannie Wakely.

Yeats' "Cathleen Ni Hoolihan"—Thomas H. Quixley.

All persons interested in any of these books are invited to come to the public library this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Pombes, who writes in a recent number of the World's Work about his two trips through India, says: "Let us concede for the sake of argument that I was mildly enthusiastic about 'Kim' before ever I went to India. But Kim was to me then merely a story—the rattling good story of an Irish soldier's out-cast, who one day lords it as the son of a sahib over Chota Lal and Abdullah, and on the next eats out of the same dish with the fakirs of the Taksali Gate. Incidentally, of course, it was to me a most wonderful story of the government's secret service. The greatest game that never ceases, day or night, throughout India. That was yesterday. Today 'Kim' is to me the best guide-book and the most faithful interpreter that the traveler may find in India. No book that I know of so clearly unfolds that wonderful land and its mysterious customs."

Since the coming of the Irish players to New York last year, the interest in the Irish movement, and the Irish drama has been made evident by many calls for Yeats' "Cathleen Ni Hoolihan" and Synge's "Playboy of the Western World." These books were bought for the public library to meet this demand. It may be wise to explain for English and American readers that "Cathleen Ni Hoolihan" was one of the names which the poets of the eighteenth century used to cloak their forbidden passion for Ireland.

"Faust," if we include under that name the first and second parts is the work of Goethe's whole life. Begun and even far advanced in early manhood, it was taken up again in his midmost years, and was completed with a faltering hand in the closing season of his advancing years. What it loses in unity, or at least in harmonious development as a piece of art, it gains in autobiographical interest. All his works, Goethe said, constituted a great confession. More than any other of his writings, "Faust" is the confession of his life.

On Thursday afternoon of this week at 3:30 o'clock Miss Lucy Gillett of the department of home economics at the Illinois Woman's college will speak upon "What the Housewife May do to Keep Her Family Well." A cordial invitation is extended to the general public.

TO TRY 21 AUTO BANDITS.

Paris, Feb. 3.—Twenty-one of the survivors of the Bonnot-Garnier gang of automobile bandits, whose exploits in robbery and murder attracted world wide attention last summer, were placed on trial in the assize court today. An immense throng of spectators, including many women and girls, filled the courtroom when the case was called. The crimes alleged against the defendants are so numerous that it is expected that at least three weeks will be required for the trial. Several hundred witnesses have been summoned to testify.

WANT TO FEEL YOUNG?

It's Olive Tablets For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation, it develops from just a few constipated days, especially in Old People, unless you take yourself in hand.

Coax the jaded bowel muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistency and nature's assistance.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets oil the bowels; their action is gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or griping when Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Take Olive Tablets mixed with olive oil and have no trouble with your bowels or stomach.

CROWDS AT THE MARDI GRAS.

New Orleans, Feb. 3.—New Orleans today approached the climax of the Mardi Gras festivities. Heading a flotilla of scores of boats, the royal yacht conveying Rex, the king of the carnival, dropped anchor in the harbor this morning. Flares and bunting almost hid the yellow Mississippi, while liners, tugs and factories turned loose the whistles on their almost bursting boilers. Through all the din the salute from the gunboat Nashville roared its way. The landing of Rex was followed by the ceremony of turning over to him the keys of the city.

Every train into New Orleans, including many specials, brought hundreds of visitors today. It is believed the Mardi Gras attendance is the largest on record. The pageant and ball of proteus, one of the principal carnival organizations, took place tonight.

PARCEL POST QUEERS.

One or two of the parcels sent to the post office to be mailed. People who weighed and stamped all packages at home, putting them into the nearest box that received merchandise and papers are smiling at Uncle Sam than they did before. A trip down down may mean a dime for street car fare and an hour that is worth more. In this case either the express company or the street car company do the smiling.

In another sense the new law is to help the sender of large packages while the sender of small ones is sacrificed. January 4th, the writer tried to mail a small package that had been accidentally left out of a Christmas package that was sent to the coast. She was told that it would cost 11 cents to send it, although before the new law went into operation it would have cost only 5 cents. An the express package it should have gone in, although weighing several times as much had gone for 26 cents.

Another bump received was the discovery that the parcel post would not carry a package of religious literature in the way of papers to a missionary who greatly desires such things. A freight agent could not receive it unless it was crated or boxed which would mean hiring a man to crate it as well as another to take it to the freight office. Another grin for the express company.

During several summers in Chicago we had shipped in by crate from the country twice a week poultry, fresh eggs, fruit and vegetables for the sake of avoiding the staler things sold at the grocers. No doubt the parcel post is a boon to thousands of city and country dwellers to the one class for their table, to the other in a higher price for farm produce, or at least a sure market for all of it at a good price.

But for those of us who have only old papers and such like to ship there seems to be no boom at all. And requiring us to use a different kind of stamp for parcels may save Uncle Sam some trouble, but will doubtless lose him some custom from those who can not take the time to be troubled that way.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he was earnestly interrupted by continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and heaving in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance. City Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

BATHTUB MEN ON TRIAL AGAIN.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 3.—The criminal anti-trust suit instituted by the government against the so-called bathtub trust came up for retrial here today before United District Judge Clarence W. Sessions of Grand Rapids. At the first trial the jury disagreed. Since then the supreme court of the United States has handed down a decision in the civil case under the Sherman anti-trust law adjudging the bathtub combination a monopoly in restraint of trade and ordering its dissolution. In its prosecution of the criminal proceedings the government relies chiefly on the evidence adduced in the hearings of the civil suit.

The defendants in the case include sixteen firms and some thirty individuals, who are alleged by the government to have obtained control of 8 per cent of the annual output of enamel, ironware, bathtubs, sinks, lavatories, etc., in the United States. The firms are located in New York, Chicago, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Chattanooga, Wheeling and a number of smaller cities in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

F. E. Walling, a farmer living near Yukon, Mo., strongly recommends Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and says: "I have been advised by my family doctor to use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for my children when there was a cough medicine needed. It always gives the best of satisfaction and I recommend it to others." City Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keemer of Winchester neighborhood were in the city Monday. They made the trip in their sleigh.

HUSBAND
TIRED OF SEEING HER SUFFER

Procured Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,
which made His Wife
a Well Woman.

Middletown, Pa.—"I had headache,
backache and such awful bearing down pains that I could not be on my feet at times and I had organic inflammation so badly that I was not able to do my work.
I could not get a good meal for my husband and one child. My neighbors said they thought my suffering was terrible.

"My husband got tired of seeing me suffer and one night went to the drug store and got me a bottle of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me I must take it. I can't tell you all I suffered and I can't tell you all that your medicine has done for me. I was greatly benefited from the first and it has made me a well woman. I can do all my housework and even helped some of my friends as well. I think it is a wonderful help to all suffering women.
I have got several to take it after seeing what it has done for me."—Mrs.

The Pinkham record is a proud and hon-

DENEEN DELIVERS
FAREWELL MESSAGE

WISHES GOVERNOR DUNNE suc-CESSFUL ADMINISTRATION

Expresses Obligation to People of State, to People of Springfield and Associates in Conduct of Public Business.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 3.—"Mr.
Speaker, members of the forty-eighth general assembly, justices of the supreme court and ladies and gentlemen:

"We have gathered to participate in and witness the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of a new administration and the transfer of the duties and responsibilities of government from one set of public officials to another. In our system of government, this does not result in any break in the continuity or disturb the regularity of the work of the government itself. The work goes on regardless of parties or political changes, and the ease with which the transition is made and the smoothness with which one administration passes into another is a very good indication of the soundness, adjustment and balance of our political system.

"The work of all departments of government is steadily growing voluminous, more diverse and more exact. To meet new conditions, the legislature enacts new laws or amends and revises old ones, the courts determine whether the new or amended laws conform to the requirements of our constitution and the executive department takes care of their enforcement.

"Every Session contributes.
"To this expansion of the functions and activities of government
every administration, and, in fact, every session of the general assembly contributes. In the government of such large affairs and especially a great commonwealth like ours, with its variety of interests, commercial, industrial,
educational and social, differences of opinion respecting the value of this or that course of action, necessarily arise. But an administration is to be judged not by these differences
but by what has been accomplished when they have been reconciled, and by the consideration whether the public interests have been conserved, the public welfare promoted, and the standards of public service duly maintained and advanced.

"To obtain these results requires the co-operation of many different persons and departments working in harmony, and in resigning the cares to my successor, I wish to take this opportunity to acknowledge my indebtedness as governor to those with whom I have been associated for a time in the conduct of the public business and to thank them for their generous aid. A great deal of the work of government is of a non-political character, and though always a Republican myself and indebted for what political preference has been accorded me to the Republican party, it is but a just recognition of the fact to say that this acknowledgement of indebtedness extends to the Democrats who have been associated in the work of the past eight years of administration as well as to the Republicans.

"Wishes Success to Dunne.
"I am sure that I cannot express any better wish for my successor than that he may receive such support from the other departments of government and from public opinion
as will enable him to meet the exacting demands of his high office. I have had the good fortune to know Governor Dunne for many years and have been generally familiar with his career as lawyer, as judge and as mayor of the city of Chicago, and may say here, and it is a pleasure to say it, that the gubernatorial campaign, long and vigorous as it was, did not degenerate into personalities or engender any personal feeling between us.

"I need not say that Governor Dunne has my best wishes for his success in solving the problems which will confront him in caring for the vast administrative business of the state. I trust that in discharging the duties and meeting the responsibilities of office, he and those associated with him may be most successful and that the important public interests confided to their care by the people of Illinois may be safely guarded and protected whilst in their hands.

"I wish to express my sense of obligation to the people of the state who have so highly honored me with their confidence and who have so often extended to Mrs. Deneen and myself their generous hospitality.
"I wish also to express my deep appreciation of the courtesies which have been uniformly extended to myself and Mrs. Deneen by the people of Springfield. Our stay here has been made most pleasant by them and we shall take away with us the happiest recollections of their kindness and cordiality.

"For Governor Dunne and his good wife and family and their associates, it is unnecessary for me to speak the same unflinching courtesies.
These will come to them naturally,
both by reason of their personal worth and genuine hospitality and good heartedness of the people of the capital city. I now take great pleasure in introducing the governor of Illinois, Hon. Edward F. Dunne."

A CALL TO PRAYER.

Over the entrance to one of the colleges of Oxford, England is this significant inscription, "For the perpetuity of the Christian church."
Colleges have been founded and are maintained for the development of Christian character. From the colleges of today will come almost all the leaders of tomorrow in even greater measure than the leaders of yesterday. The men and women who will lead in the solution of our present perplexing problems of civic,
commercial, political, educational,
social, and religious concern in the next generation are now mostly in our schools and colleges.

The future leaders need to be not only wise, but good. They need to have not only clear and well trained minds, but clean hands and pure hearts. They should be men and women definitely dedicated to the right, not for self interest, but for the service of their fellows under the leadership of Jesus Christ.

Thursday, February 6, has been set apart as a day of prayer for colleges. There will be special observance of the day at the Woman's college, by class prayer meetings, a public service with sermon in the forenoon, and a college prayer service in the afternoon. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Charles W. Smith of St. Louis at 10:30 o'clock.

We call upon all Christian people to join us in prayer that God's blessing may be upon our colleges, that presidents and faculties may have grace and wisdom and strength to meet well all their responsibilities, and that the students may dedicate their trained powers to the service of Christ, and the helping of their fellow men and women.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOV. DUNNE

Recommendations to the Legislature of Illinois.

CONSTITUTION AMENDMENTS

Says They Are Necessary to Meet Demands of Modern Progress.

Governor Asks for the Abolishment of the State Board of Equalization and the Creation of a Tax Commission in Its Stead—Election of United States Senators—State Regulation of Public Utilities.

To the Members of the Forty-eighth General Assembly:

The constitution of the state wisely provides that the governor shall, at the commencement of each session, and, at the close of his term of office, give to the general assembly information by message of the condition of the state, and make such recommendations as he deems proper. In compliance with that provision Governor Deneen has submitted his message to you.

It also has become the custom for the incoming governor to make an inaugural address, recommending such measures to the consideration of the general assembly as he deems expedient and necessary. In pursuance of that custom, I respectfully submit the following:

Amendments to the Constitution.

The constitution of this state should be amended in at least three essential particulars, and in at least three separate articles of the same to meet the demands of modern progress.

Under Article IV, relating to the legislative department, as now phrased, the inherent right of all self-governing people to initiate and veto laws is not reserved to and by the people of Illinois.

For more than eight years, the people of this state, following precedents set by other republics and fourteen sister states of the American union, have been insistently demanding the right to legislate directly for themselves by the initiative; and the right to veto legislation, passed by the legislature, contrary to the wishes of the people, by the referendum.

With the control given to the people over legislation, by the possession of the initiative and the referendum, corruption in the legislature would, practically, be eliminated; and all laws, finally enacted either by the legislature or by direct vote of the people, would truly express the will of the people.

This control of the law-making power by the people themselves can only be secured by amending Article IV, of the constitution; so as to give to the people the right, by popular petition, to originate legislation under the initiative, and to vote legislation by the referendum.

I would urgently recommend, therefore, at this session of the legislature, that the necessary legislative steps be taken to amend Article IV, of the constitution, so as to secure the right of direct legislation by the people themselves, upon a petition of eight per centum of the voters voting at the last general election, and to secure the right of the veto in the people, by requiring submission to the people of any law or laws, passed by the legislature, for their approval or disapproval, upon the filing of a petition of five per centum of the voters, voting at the last general election.

Relating to Revenue.

Article IX, of the constitution, relating to revenue and taxation, and Article XIV, relating to amendments to the constitution, ought, also, be amended; but we are unfortunately confronted with a constitutional impasse, which makes it impossible to provide for more than one of these three amendments to the constitution at this session of the legislature.

Article XIV, of the constitution, relating to amendments to the constitution, declares that "The General Assembly shall have no power to propose amendments to more than one article of this constitution at the same session."

This article, itself, should be amended. It is archaic, unreasonably restrictive, and oppressive. No valid reason exists why several articles of the constitution should not be amended at the same session to meet the demands of modern conditions.

The unreasonably restrictive character of this article has occasioned, at times, a demand for a constitutional convention to revise the whole constitution; but that demand has not been so general or insistent as has been the demand for the amendment of the constitution in certain well defined particulars.

There is a general and justifiable demand for an amendment to the constitution, covering the initiative and referendum, for broadening the amending clause of the constitution, and for an amendment of that article of the constitution relating to the revenue or taxing power of the legislature.

Article IX, of the constitution, relating to taxation and revenue, requires every person and corporation to "Pay a tax in proportion to the value of his, or her, or its property." This language prevents the legislature from using any discrimination, of any character, between different classes and descriptions of property. All property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, must be assessed in the same category, and at the same ratio of value.

In theory, this was deemed fair and just by the framers of our constitution. In practice, as the result of over forty years experience in this and other civilized countries, it has been found impossible of accomplishment. A large portion of personal property, and substantially all personal property evidenced on paper, such as bonds, stocks, notes, etc., has escaped taxation; and will continue to escape taxation until such property is placed in a special category and taxed in such a way as to secure for the state proper revenue therefrom.

Article IX, of the constitution, therefore, should be amended so as to give the legislature and the people free rein in the way of taxing different classes of property, indifferent schedules, and by different methods.

Amend Article IV.

While the constitution should be amended, in all of the foregoing particulars, only one of these amendments, as I have pointed out, can be provided for at this session because of the limitations imposed by the constitution itself. We must, therefore, elect now as to which of these different articles of the constitution should be amended at this session of the legislature.

In view of the insistent and repeated demands of the people at the polls for the initiative and referendum, I, therefore, respectfully urge the legislature at this session to take the necessary steps to procure the amendment of Article IV, of the constitution so as to permit the crystallization into law of the initiative and referendum.

When this action is taken at this session it can be followed at the next following session of the legislature by action providing for an amendment of that article of the constitution, relating to amendments, so as to permit amendments to three, or even more, of the articles of the constitution, at the same session, which will open the door for reform of the revenue laws thereafter, and any other changes in the constitution demanded by the people.

In making this recommendation, I am not unmindful of the fact that the people of this state, under the public policy act, voted in November, 1912, for submission at this session of the legislature the question of amending Article IX, of the constitution, relating to revenue, by a vote of nearly three to one. I desire to call your attention, however, to the fact that very little publicity was given, during the campaign, to the circumstances that only one article of the constitution could be amended at a single session, and that the amendment of the article relating to revenue, would necessarily, of itself, postpone the amendment of the constitution covering the initiative and referendum to a subsequent session.

I call your attention to the further fact that in the same campaign, as conducted by myself, the initiative and referendum were urged as among the most vital and pressing issues of the campaign, and that my plurality, of approximately 125,000, was largely the result of the persistency with which I pledged myself in favor of the adoption of that great reform.

Abolish Board of Equalization.

Moreover, relief from some, and the most onerous, of the inequities and inequalities of taxation is open to us without waiting for an amendment to the constitution. For years past the great corporations of the state have been enjoying undue favoritism in the matter of taxation, owing to maladministration of the law by the State Board of Equalization. This body is charged by law with the duty of assessing fairly and justly the property of corporations. It has signally failed to do its duty. The corporations have been unduly favored at the expense of the people.

Experience has shown that the State Board of Equalization is unscientifically constituted and unfairly administered. It is a departmental fiasco, and its work farcical. It is unwieldy in numbers, intermittent in its labors, and secretive in its methods. It should be abolished. In its place should be created a tax court, or commission, composed of three or five members of approved intelligence and information, appointed by the executive, with the approval of the senate, for a term of years, that shall remain in continuous session the entire year and record its acts and findings from day to day. It should be given all the powers now committed to the State Board of Equalization, and, in addition thereto, should have general supervision of the administration of the assessment and tax laws of the state.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend the passage, by the legislature, of a law abolishing the State Board of Equalization, and creating a tax court, or commission, along the lines above indicated.

Election of Senators.

Under the existing terms of the constitution of the United States, United States senators must be elected by the legislatures of the states. As the result of one hundred and twenty-six years of experience, it has been found that this method of electing United States senators has resulted in scandalous corruption, and scandalous misrepresentation of the people in the upper chamber of congress.

For many years past, in many of the states, the election of a United States senator has been accompanied by chicanery, fraud, double-dealing, and corruption. Many of the men, so chosen, have shown, by their votes and conduct, in what ought to be the most august and trusted body of the people's representatives, that they represented, not the interests of the people, but the interests of plutocracy and organized greed. The senate of the United States, in recent years, because of this condition of affairs, has, in a large degree, lost the confidence of the people.

United States senators should be chosen in each of the states, as are its governors, its congressmen and state officials, by popular vote. At least this is the demand of the people of this state. The legislature of this state has gone on record to this effect in the years 1903, 1907 and 1909.

The congress of the United States yielded to the public demand for a change in the method of electing United States senators. In May last it adopted a joint resolution providing for the amendment of the clause of the constitution governing the election of senators, which, when it has been ratified by three-fourths of the states, as I believe it will be, will invest the people of each of the forty-eight states with power to choose their senators at the ballot box. The ratification of this amendment by the state of Illinois will come before the general assembly at this session. In view of the action taken by previous general assemblies, I have no doubt that your concurrence is assured. Until such an amendment to the constitution is passed, the advisory vote of the people at the polls should be binding on the conscience of every member of the legislature.

Public Utilities.

The day of competition in the supply of gas, electric light and power, street railways, and some other public utilities, has passed. Monopoly in these matters has come to stay.

In these modern days no municipality can tolerate the tearing up of its streets, every few months or years, by rival water, gas, electric light, heating or telephone companies in the laying of pipes, wires and conduits.

Only one utility producing concern should be allowed that privilege for each utility in each city.

That concern must be either the municipal corporation itself, or a private corporation.

The sole aim of a public corporation is to operate to the satisfaction of the community, which is always assured by giving the best service at the lowest rate.

The sole aim of all private corporations, unregulated by law, is to make money for their stockholders, and the most money can be made by poor service at a high rate to the consumer. The only question, then, is whether the public shall control and operate through state or local agencies, or whether it shall allow these utilities to remain in the ownership and control of private corporations and regulate them by law.

Municipal Ownership.

After a careful investigation, through funds contributed by various vested interests, the Committee on Municipal vs. Private Operation of Public Utilities, appointed, in 1906, by the National City Federation, reported nineteen to one:

"To protect the rights of the people, we recommend that the various states should give to their municipalities authority, upon popular vote, under reasonable regulations, to build and operate public utilities, or to build and lease the same, or to take over works already constructed. In no other way can the people be put upon a fair trading basis, and obtain from the individual companies such rights as they ought to have."

In other words, this commission, of which a majority at the start were strongly in sympathy with, or identified with private ownership, held the right of municipal ownership to be more important than any form of regulation.

While most cities of Illinois may not be ready, as yet, to undertake municipal operation of other than waterworks, legislation should be enacted immediately, giving all cities the right to buy, and to operate their own public utilities. For this purpose, cities should be empowered to issue bonds, subject to referendum, and such other reasonable safeguards as may be necessary. If such rights are given, it will force private corporations, now furnishing these utilities, to give decent service at decent rates, or face the alternative of public ownership.

State Regulation.

Important as it is to give cities the right to manage their own public utilities, it is also important to give to state and local bodies large powers of regulation of the public utilities that remain in private hands.

These utilities may be broadly classed as "intra-urban" and "inter-urban." In other words, they are either local in character, confined to a city and its suburbs, or they run through country districts and connect one place with another.

In the latter class are included inter-urban electric railways, natural gas mains, electric transmission lines, and a considerable portion of the telephone systems of the state.

In the other class are included city gas, electric light and power, heating and street railway companies, and such parts of the telephone system as are operated within cities by virtue of franchises granted by such cities. Doubtless, some other public utilities, could be included in this class.

The inter-urban utilities can only be regulated by the state. For that purpose, a well-equipped public utilities commission should be created with large powers. It should control the issue of securities, the character of service, the rate of charge, etc. It should be appointed by the executive with the approval of the senate.

With respect to intra-urban, or strictly city utilities, it might be well, at the start, to give to the proposed state commission control of the city utilities when requested by any of the several cities of the state. The commission, however, should be empowered to secure uniformity of accounting and full publicity with respect even to the city utilities, and should be prepared to furnish this information in tabulated form in its annual reports, and in further detail to public officials.

The commission should also be equipped with funds and authority, so that it can employ and furnish competent expert help to cities seeking advice and assistance.

When requested to do so by any municipality, the commission should also supervise the service of these city utilities.

It would also be well to give the State Commission full control of all new issues of stocks, bonds and notes, and other evidence of indebtedness of all the public utilities of the state, including those within the cities. If this were done, the commission should be equipped with resources and power to make a physical valuation of such properties. No additional securities should be permitted to be issued save for additional physical property and legitimate brokerage. It should be distinctly provided that future issues of securities, when approved by the commission should be clearly separated by serial numbers or otherwise, from existing securities, to the end that purchasers might always know whether they were buying new securities, approved by the state, and issued for an increase of physical investment, or, whether they were buying securities issued prior to the enactment of the law, and that had not in any way passed under the scrutiny of the state.

Local Regulation.

In addition to a law conferring the right of municipal ownership, and another creating a State Utilities Commission, we need legislation conferring upon cities that choose to exercise it, the same rights of control over all their city utilities that they now possess with respect to water companies. Chicago secured such a right with respect to gas and electric companies about six years ago. A similar law, with perhaps some additional powers, should be passed for all cities.

After some experience with the legislation recommended above, we shall be in better position to determine whether the powers of the State Commission should be further increased. It is, of course, desirable, and in accordance with Democratic policy, to confer as much home rule as possible upon cities, and to concentrate in state and national hands only such powers as are state or nation-wide in their scope.

To Chicago and all cities over 100,000 population might be given the right, enjoyed by the city of St. Louis, creating its own commission, which would report directly to the city council, and be given such powers and resources as may be conferred upon it by the city itself.

Corrupt Practices Act.

For many years past elections in this state, particularly in our largest cities, have been signalized by the lavish use of money, both before and during primary elections, and before and during final elections. Herds of blind men have surrounded polling places intimidating, cajoling and often terrorizing voters. Candidates have expended more than twice the salary they could collect during the whole term of their offices. Such a practice is scandalous, and, if further tolerated by law, will delude from political aspiration all but the rich and corrupt.

To reform these conditions I, therefore, recommend the passage of a corrupt practices act, which will limit, within reasonable restrictions, the expenditure of money during a political campaign, and compel the publication of all amounts collected and expended both before and after election.

Civil Service.

Civil service is no longer an untried principle. Honestly and fairly administered, it makes for better and more efficient public service, and the people have shown by their votes that they are in favor of it.

The various institutions and offices of the state should be maintained at the highest possible point of efficiency, and an honestly enforced civil service law will do much to secure that result.

I respectfully urge that your honorable body give careful consideration to all measures relating to civil service, its extension to positions which should be included in its scope, and other amendments which might make for better operation or enforcement of the law.

Shorter Ballot.

Some effort should be made to shorten the ballot of the elector. It has become so cumbersome, and heavily loaded, with names of candidates, particularly in large cities, that even the most enlightened citizen is incapable of exercising an intelligent selection in the choice of some candidates.

I respectfully intrust to your favorable consideration the subject-matter of shortening the ballots to be voted upon by the people, both at primary and final elections.

All judicial officers should be voted for at a time when no state, county, city or village officers are being elected. This, in itself, would shorten the ballot as voted under present conditions.

One of the gravest defects of our existing election law is that which gives the first place upon the ballot to the person who succeeds in having the official, with whom the petition is filed, stamp it as being the first filed, and which places the other petitioners' names upon the ballot in the order of filing, as determined by such official. Such is the effect of the existing law. The first place on the ballot is of enormous advantage. If in no other way, this objection to the existing election law can be avoided by amending the law so as to require rotation of the names of the candidates in the printing of the ballots.

I suggest that a special committee be appointed by each house to consider and determine upon some equitable plan for the rotation of the names of candidates upon the ballot.

Breaking of Pledges.

In the political history of the country, it has happened that candidates for public offices during the campaigns have given written pledges to their constituents with reference to their position, if elected, upon public questions of great interest to such constituents; and, after election, have violated pledges when in public office.

Such conduct appears to me to be obtaining votes under false pretenses, and obtaining votes by false pretenses, is, to my mind, as great a moral crime as obtaining property by false pretenses. Why not make it a legal crime? I respectfully recommend the enactment of a law making the breaking of a written political pledge by a public official a felony punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Amend Two Cent Fare Law.

Owing to an oversight of the legislature in drafting the two cent fare act, children under twelve years of age, not purchasing tickets at depots, are now charged three times the fare they would pay if they purchased tickets at the depot, while an adult is penalized to the extent of only 50 per cent of his fare.

I recommend that the law be amended so as to provide that a child should not be penalized more heavily than an adult.

Public Expenditures.

I recommend the appointment of a joint committee of both houses of the legislature to examine into the condition of the public institutions of the state, and to confer with the State Board of Administration to ascertain if it is not possible to reduce the expenditures of the same without impairing the efficiency of these institutions.

Epileptic Colony.

Public officials, and many philanthropic citizens in private life, have called my attention to the fact that in the state of Illinois there are a large number of men, women and children afflicted with epilepsy to such a degree as to render them incapable of pursuing the gainful occupations of life; yet who are otherwise mentally and physically in sound health. They number, it is estimated, about 10,000. At least 2,500 of these, it is claimed, are, at the present time, without means of a livelihood, without friends or relatives who are able to support them, and, by reason of their helplessness, are drifting into crime and abject poverty.

It is contended that such unfortunate should be cared for by the state, instead of placing them in county institutions; that if they were cared for in some open colony with healthful surroundings, where they could receive skilled medical and surgical care, many of them would respond to such treatment, improve in health and become useful members of society. Much as I am disinclined to recommend any measure which will increase the outlay of expenditure of the state, I am forced to conclude that the care of such unfortunate is a legitimate and necessary duty of the state in the exercise of common humanity.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend that the Colony for Epileptics be created, and that appropriation be made sufficient to buy a tract of land of about 2,000 acres, and that the erection of buildings thereon be begun at the earliest possible date.

Convict Labor.

Provision also should be made for employment of inmates of our penitentiaries in road work. Primarily, convicts should be used for the preparation of material, either at the penitentiaries, or at camps, established near natural deposits of stone, gravel or other material. In the actual construction of highways, when it becomes necessary, short term prisoners should be employed on an honor system, such as prevails in Colorado. Humanitarian reasons underlie the employment of convicts in the open air work of this sort. The problem of what is going to become of the paroled or discharged convict is largely solved if he is released healthy in body and mind, and not debased by associations formed in the debilitating environments of cells and prison workshops.

Improvement of Highways.

A matter touching vitally the agricultural, commercial, educational, social, religious and economic welfare of Illinois, and involving the conservation of natural resources, is the question of good roads. In the improvement of public highways, Illinois has been backward.

The loss to farmers, because of inaccessible primary markets, and the abnormal expense of transportation due to bad roads, must be considered as a contributing cause of the high cost of living. In some Illinois counties, highways are impassable to ordinary loads for a full third part of the year. Bad roads not only hinder crop production and marketing, but they keep the rural consumer away from the store of the merchant for weeks at a time. They keep pupils from schools, and voters from political gatherings, and from participation in elections. They impair the efficiency of churches, and social, fraternal and other organizations, which depend largely on public gatherings for efficacy of their work.

I recommend for your consideration legislation which will promote the efficiency and economy of the administration of the road system of the state. This legislation, I believe, should incorporate provisions for state co-operation with counties and townships in the construction of main highways and bridges; and the proper maintenance of all roads after they are built; for the compulsory dragging of all dirt roads, and for the use of the state automobile tax as a nucleus of a fund for such state aid.

Chicago's Crippled Finances.

My attention has been called by the mayor and corporate authorities of the city of Chicago to the fact, that under a recent decision of the supreme court of this state, constraining the so-called Jull law, the city of Chicago is now so seriously crippled, financially, as to be unable to carry on successfully its ordinary corporate functions. Other cities of the state may soon find themselves in like condition.

I, therefore, respectfully suggest that the corporate authorities of the different cities of the state be given an immediate hearing, and that such amendatory legislation may be enacted as will conserve and protect the corporate functions of the cities of the state.

Amend Juvenile Court Act.

Under the existing juvenile court law, a dependent can be taken from the care and custody of its parents and deposited beyond the jurisdiction of the court and without the courts of the state—even beyond the seas.

I respectfully recommend that it be so amended as to prevent such children being taken without the jurisdiction of the court.

Amend Jury Law in Civil Cases.

I became convinced, from my experience on the bench, some years ago, that quite frequently there was a miscarriage of justice in civil law-suits, resulting from disagreements of juries, procured by corrupt methods. In nearly all of such cases the disagreements arose by reason of one or two men refusing to agree with their fellow jurors upon verdicts, which, to the ordinary person hearing the evidence, would seem manifestly fair and just.

In view of these experiences, I would respectfully suggest that the law of the state, relating to the trial of civil cases in the courts, be amended so as to permit the court to accept a verdict signed by eleven jurors after twelve hours' deliberation, and by ten jurors after twenty-four hours' deliberation. I am of the opinion, however, that in all criminal cases, involving the life or liberty of a citizen, that a unanimous verdict should still be required.

Last Day of Legislature.

I have been informed by members of the legislature, of much experience, that on the last day, or rather night, of the session bills are read and voted upon in the midst of so much confusion and turmoil that it is often impossible for the most vigilant member to know what measure is being voted upon and how the vote is recorded.

On the assumption that such is the fact, I would respectfully suggest that the last day of all sessions, by statute, be set aside for the purpose of verifying all roll calls of the day proceeding and for the transaction of no other business.

The people have imposed upon the general assembly and the executive a solemn responsibility, in the discharge of which, I trust, there will be friendly co-operation and sympathetic understanding. Let us, therefore, strive earnestly, untiringly, to redeem the pledges we have given; and the people's faith in our sincerity will be our reward.

Gaskell and MacVitty, the producers, have given it a very beautiful scenic mounting, the mountains of the Ozarks lending themselves to the best in the scenic artist's art. The cast has been carefully selected, in fact, it is said to be unique in the matter of types.
